

STAFFORD COUNTY CENTER OPENS OCTOBER 2024

Located off Garrisonville Road (Route 610) and easily accessible from I-95 using Exit 143, the new 74,000 square foot center will offer full student support services, high tech learning spaces, and community wellness center.

The new Barbara J. Fried Building will offer a full suite of student support services, as well as dedicated space for business, information technology, and cybersecurity training.

- Admissions and Enrollment Services
- Business classrooms
- Computer labs
- Conference rooms
- Counseling
- Cybersecurity classrooms
- Faculty offices
- Financial Aid
- Food pantry
- Library
- Pearson VUE testing center
- Tutoring and Academic Support
- Welcome Center
- Veterans Services

The new Kevin L. Dillard Health Sciences Building will be the north Stafford hub for health sciences, offering a cutting-edge facility to train the next generation of healthcare professionals.

- Conference rooms
- Nursing classrooms and labs
- Observation classrooms
- Robert C. O'Neill Wellness Center
- Science labs
- State-of-the-art healthcare simulators
- Testing center
- Virtual hospital

GERMANNA
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

